

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 6, 1882.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

To keep yourself in humor good,
On eve of the election,
Just go and see the "Messenger,"
Who comes from "Jarvis Section".
You'll see the famed comedian,
Each juror of the panel.
Must, perforce, decide to be
The great and only Dan'l.

The river is still rising.

CIRCULATE the DAILY BULLETIN.

THANKSGIVING turkeys are preparing to be offered up.

KEEP your temper while talking politics or about the Ashland affair.

SEVERAL scouts from the Boyd county mob are reported to have been at Lexington.

A POLAR wave is said to be rolling this way. Cold weather may be expected very soon.

THE report that a child was killed in its mother's arms during the fight at Ashland, is untrue.

A YOUNG man named Wm. Wright had his foot crushed at Lexington, Friday, by being caught under an engine on the Kentucky Central.

THE alarm of fire on Sunday morning about one o'clock, was occasioned by the burning of an outhouse at Mrs. Frank Duke's in East Maysville. The loss was slight.

MR. CHARLES COOPER has rented the building on Second street lately occupied by Jos. Varian and is receiving a large and well selected stock of dry goods. Go and see him.

MR. THOMAS CONNELL has opened a boarding and eating house on Third street, in the Poyntz block, and is prepared to entertain the public in good style. Call and see him.

Sergeant John M. Hierley, who was accidentally wounded at Catlettsburg, and sergeant Fitzgerald and private Kehoe, who remained to take care of him, are expected home to-day.

Masquerade Ball.

A number of the young gentlemen of East Maysville have arranged to give a masquerade ball at Amazon Hall, on the 17th inst. The music will be furnished by Ray's orchestra and everything possible will be done to make it a pleasant occasion.

For Rent.

My residence on the Mt. Carmel road, one mile from this city. The house contains eleven rooms; there is a good barn on the place; with fourteen acres of land particularly adapted to gardening purposes. Would rent house and portion of the ground. (nov11f) H. H. Cox.

THE answer to the question propounded by the DAILY BULLETIN in the issue Saturday has been correctly furnished by Mr. John Shea, and he is according to the terms of the offer entitled to a year's subscription to the DAILY. The solution is this: Each base ball club must play nine games with eleven other clubs, or a total of ninety-nine games. As only six clubs can play, six times ninety-nine, or five hundred and ninety-four, represents the number of games played. Other answers to the question were furnished but Mr. Shea's was the only correct one.

THE Commercial takes a somewhat different view of the Ashland affair from what it did several days ago. It now says: "Perhaps the first question to be decided, with respect to the Ashland tragedy is that as to the duty of the officers of the law to protect criminals. Have the representatives of law any rights that a mob should be taught to respect?"

Mobs are sometimes rather too dictatorial. It has become almost a matter of course, that if the people are excited, and propose to take out an alleged criminal and murder him, the officers are overpowered, and the persons in custody killed without trial.

In the Ashland case the threats of mob violence were notorious. A steamboat bearing a couple of desperadoes believed to be murder, in charge of officers and protected by a guard, was pursued and assailed.

The boat was fired upon from the shore repeatedly, with the evident purpose of mischief. A ferryboat crowded by an armed mob attempted to intercept the steamer. Men who were bearing arms for the defense of the prisoners were wounded. Now, what was the duty of the officers? Was it to surrender to the mob? It should be fully understood that American volunteers are not, as a rule, so highly disciplined as to stand fire without returning it. The soldier boys, if shot at, will shoot back. That should not be forgotten.

It happened in the case we are considering, as always, that innocent people suffered. That is to be deeply regretted. The attack upon the boat was, however, persistent, vindictive and dangerous; and the testimony is clear that there was firing from the ferryboat and the shore upon the steamer, before the troops used their guns.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mr. Brainard T. Smith, of Cincinnati, is in Maysville to-day.

Mr. A. A. Wadsworth now occupies his handsome new dwelling.

Dr. H. C. Morgan and wife are visiting friends at Flemingsburg.

Miss Mary Andrews, of Flemingsburg, is visiting Miss Anna Stockton.

Miss Mary Neal, who has been visiting friends in Lewis, returned home last Friday.

Mrs. Thomas A. Davis and her niece, Miss Ida Bell Edmonds, are visiting friends in Maysville.

The ladies of the Missionary Mite Society of the Presbyterian church will meet to-morrow evening at the home of Rev. S. B. Alderson.

GET your ballots ready for to-morrow and scrutinize them closely to see that the law is complied with in every respect.

George H. Wheeler.

Mr George H. Wheeler, a well known citizen and business man, died on Sunday afternoon about three o'clock after a short illness. He was born in this county forty-two years ago, on the 19th day of last September. Nineteen years ago he married Miss Awilda Oliver who survives him. He has six children and had the care of two orphans. During the late war he was a 1st Lieutenant in Company D. 10th Ky., Federal Cavalry, and afterwards Capt. of Co. G. 11th Ky. Cavalry. He served honorably until the close of the war. He was a member of the Lodge of Knights of Pythias of Aberdeen, and of Charter Oak Lodge I. O. O. F., of the same place and had filled all the offices in both lodges. The funeral will take place at two o'clock this afternoon, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows, after services by Rev. M. D. Reynolds, of the M. E. church South.

TAUGHT TO BE COWBOYS.

The Practical Training of Stock Men Made the Object of a School in Texas.

New York Sun.

"Yes, sir, that's perfectly correct. As the advertisement says, $100 pays for three months' instruction, in rearing, tending and caring for horses, cattle and sheep, with board and the use of a good saddle horse on a stock ranch in West Texas, and a young man after learning the business can get immediate employment in it at $50 a month or more.

The speaker was the local agent of the Texas Farm Association who went on to explain:

"This association, has nothing to do with the matter, except to receive applicants for this practical tuition. The man who makes the offer is Colonel Byron Van Raub, owner of the Don Carlos ranch, which is twenty-two miles north of San Antonio. But we know the offer to be made in good faith, and that the Colonel is a perfectly square, trustworthy man. He is an old Prussian officer, who has ideas about training young men, and does this thing more because it does good and amuses him than for any profit from it. He has 8,000 acres of land, stocked with some 400 ponies, a lot of horses—I don't know how many—and 4,000 head of cattle and sheep. His plan is to teach young men to be stockmen by making their daily life for a time a steady accumulation of knowledge of results indelibly fixed by experience. Each branch of the business will be thoroughly taught by experienced men, including breeding, herding, branding, lassoing, marketing, riding—a thousand things about camp life that can only be learned by experience. The pupils will not only be taught by the work on his own ranch, but will be taken to visit the other great ranches in the vicinity, some of which have on them 1,000 to 2,000 horses, 10,000 to 50,000 head of cattle, and 10,000 to 60,000 sheep and goats. There are now on Colonel Van Raub's ranch forty-four young men, between the ages of fifteen and thirty-five years, going through this course of instruction. A number of them are Englishmen, and there are also some from Nova Scotia, and several from other parts of New England. None have yet gone from New York, but it is probable that the offer will not fail to attract a good many here. This is the best season for them to go out to learn the winter work. Practically, one month, in December and January, covers all the bad part of the Texas winter. For eleven months in the year one can camp out there in the open air without danger or discomfort. The fare from New York to San Antonio is $56.50 by boat and rail, or $57.26 by all rail, first-class limited.

"No. The elements of draw poker and seven-up and the use of the revolver are not included in Colonel Van Raub's course of instruction, nor even permitted on his ranch. It is a popular error to suppose that the Texan goes about constantly with a howitzer on his hip and in a normal condition of inebriety. The country is settling up rapidly with good, law-abiding citizens, who respect the rights of person and property just the same as people do elsewhere. Our association has sent out there within a year some 1,600 settlers, the best class of emigrants, many of them from other States, and thousands go without or direction or knowledge.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Miss Lissa Coburn, a charming young lady of Ripley, Ohio, is the guest of Miss Maud Wilson, of this place.

Mr. D. Schlitz and wife paid Manchester, a visit Sunday.

Mr. T. Madigan, who has been on the sick list for the past week is rapidly improving.

Mr. Cheesman was up the river on a business trip this week.

Mr. J. Newton returned home on last Saturday.

Dr. Lay, our accommodating telegraph operator has been on the sick list for several days past.

The residence of John Hall is being rapidly completed.

On account of the absence of our pastor who has been holding a series of meetings at Ebenezer, there has been no preaching here for the past two Sunday nights.

C. Gamas, of Richmond, Ohio, visited friends here Sunday.

C. Hawks returned from a visit to Lexington.

John Enis, a highly esteemed and respected citizen of this place was buried Saturday. He was an honest and upright man, he leaves a wife and six children and numerous relations and friends to mourn his departure. His family have the sympathy of the entire community in their late bereavement.

COUNTY POINTS.

WASHINGTON.

The protracted meeting at the Methodist church still continues. Up to the present time there have been twelve additions to the church. These persons were received in proper form Sunday morning. Rev. J. S. Sims who has been assisting in this meeting, is a most excellent preacher.

Mrs. Ambler and Miss Sallie Marshall, of Fleming county, have been spending a few days with their grandfather, Hon. M. P. Marshall.

Prof. Thomas Parry, who is conducting a subscription school at this place, has sent out some very neat monthly reports, giving the class standing of his pupils. We like this plan as it gives parents information which they could not otherwise obtain.

We have seen a book agent in town selling the "Story of the Bible." OCCASIONAL.

The Best.

There are other good cooking stoves and A. J. Egnew & Co., keeps them in stock, but if there are two stoves in existence which lay just claims to superiority in many respects over all others they are the OMAHA AND HOT BLAST CHARTER. We have not the space here to point out their many merits but call at our establishment on Market street and we will take great pleasure in doing so there, whether you wish to buy the stove or not. We consider it the best stove in the market. oct30d&wlm. A. J. EGNEW & Co.

MARRIED.

November 5th, 1882, at the Two Lick Baptist church, Miss ANNA J. WILLIAMS to JES. W. WOODWARD, all of Mason county.

Boarding and Eating House.

I RESPECTFULLY announce that I have opened a Boarding and Eating House on Third street, in Poyntz's block, where I am prepared to entertain the public in the best style. Prices reasonable. Edmoltw THOMAS CONNELL.

ROOF PAINTING.

A Few Plain Facts in Regard to TIN and IRON ROOFS.

Preserve your roofs by having a coat of

ARMSTRONG'S

ELASTIC ROOF PAINT

Applied on them. After ten years test in different cities in the state of Kentucky, Armstrong's Elastic Roof Paint is acknowledged superior to any other in use. It forms a heavy elastic body smooth and glossy; it will not crack or scale, dries quickly and will remain without repainting from 8 to 10 years. This paint will stop all leaks in tin or iron roofs and remain so for many years. It has been applied to many of the best buildings, both public and private, in this state, of which I have testimonials to show from gentlemen whose standing in society and business qualifications makes their opinion and knowledge of its worth, after having tried it for years on their roofs, which of itself is the best of guarantees of its useful and valuable worth to all who have or metal roofs. If you have a leaky or a worn out roof that has decayed from neglect of being properly covered with paint, and it leaks and your tinner has failed to stop the leaks, give my paint a trial, and if I do not stop the leaks entirely there will be no charge made.

I will remain in this city a few days with the view of introducing my Elastic Paint, of which I am the inventor and manufacturer and sole owner. I manufacture but the two kinds, the Black Elastic and the Elastic Brown. Neither of these paint contain any linseed oil in their composition, and both being fire proof when applied on shingles or wood. The Black Elastic can stand more intense heat than any other paint made or known in this country, and is calculated for tin or iron roofs. n21f LYSANDER B. ARMSTRONG.
